The American Legion Rider Post #960 located in Levittown, PA would like to invite everyone to attend our benefit horse shoe tournament on June 23, 2012 for an American soldier wounded in an IED attack while on patrol in Afghanistan. Adam Keys survived the attack, but is a multiple amputee as a result of the injuries.

Adam has endured more than 100 surgeries and has spent countless days in various military hospitals over 2 years. Adam has spent nearly two months at Brooke Army Medical Center at Fort Sam Houston in San Antonio, where specialists cared for stubborn wounds that had refused to heal. He is currently back at Walter Reed Medical Center, were Adam has practiced using a prosthetic training hand and walking on prosthetic legs were he made his first steps on Jan. 3.

This invitation is open to both tournament participants and spectators. The more in attendance the better.

We have collected donations, door prizes and silent auction items from local and national companies to include numerous NFL, NHL, & MLB teams which will auctioned off during the horseshoe tournament.

All funds raised will be given to Adam to use as needed for medical or personnel use.

If you would like to offer a donation to show your support to this true American hero please make all checks out to ALR Post 960.

If you would like more information or have questions about this event, please feel free to contact me @ 215 651 8917 or email alr960vp@verizon.net

Thank you in advance for your support to this great cause and hope to see you June 23,

Kevin Savoy
